

Describe Using the 5 Senses

What are you describing?

What does it look like? Describe Using the 5 Senses

What associations does this description suggest to you?

What does it sound like?

What associations does this description suggest to you?

What does it smell like?

What associations does this description suggest to you?

What does it taste like?

What associations does this description suggest to you?

What does it feel like?

What associations does this description suggest to you?

Bonus: What emotions does it create?

What associations does this description suggest to you?

